

Hello.

My name is Jonathan Robertson and I'm a freelance graphic artist and illustrator.

Since 1998, I have worked with some of the UK's leading design agencies and world's most successful and best-loved brands.

For the last 10 years I've headed up Kreative Bomb: my multi-discipline agency based in Yorkshire's creative heart, Hebden Bridge.

Kreative Bomb prides itself on listening to the client and fully understanding their needs and aspirations.

Delivering carefully considered, unique and meticulously crafted solutions that go beyond just answering the brief.
